

The use of BPL (Power Line Communication) as it is being proposed, without some means of filtering out unwanted radiation in the high frequency bands, would effectively destroy H.F. amateur radio. I strongly oppose adoption of BPL without careful consideration of its effect on the amateur radio world.